February 2025 Newsletter

Hello Emmaus Family!

As we start this month of love, I am asking that you keep in prayer Theresea Vigue, our Walk 41 Lay Director as well as the whole Women's Walk team. January has already started out with a bang! We have already been facing challenges getting this upcoming walk moving forward in the right direction. From building teams to pilgrim applications, to sudden date changes. But

God is Good All The Time!

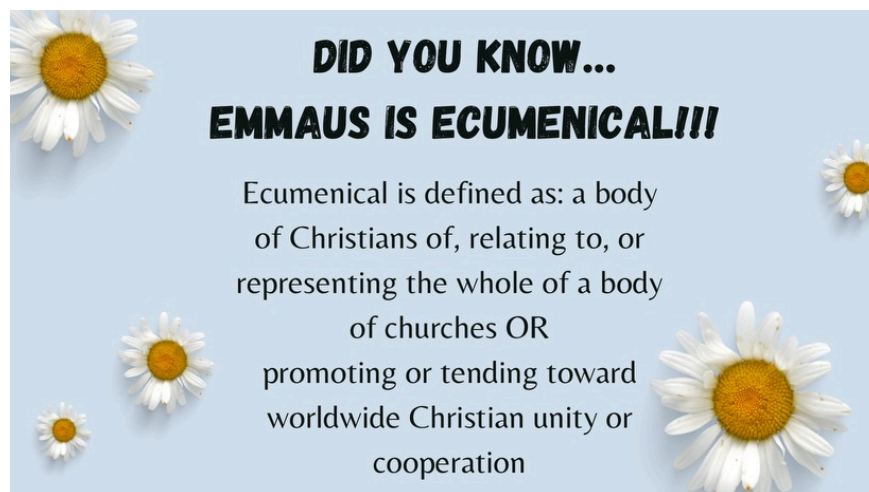

Time is getting closer for our March Walks. If you feel led to serve, at any point during the weekend, say you can help in the Kitchen Saturday, please reach out to gjwtechair@gmail.com and let us know, any help is greatly appreciated. I am hoping that EVERYONE will come out for candlelight on Saturday March 15th. Let's show these ladies heaven on earth.

Let love be genuine. Abhor what is evil; hold fast to what is good. Love one another with brotherly affection. Outdo one another in showing honor. -Romans 12:9-10 ESV

Don't forget about that agape! What items can you share with the team to show the pilgrims some agape love? This is the time to get started on that.

Wishing you a blessed February!

-Angela Dunn
Community Lay Director/Chairperson

“What Does Love Mean” was posted on teribradyblog.com in “Letters to Lindsey,” December 4, 2012. It provides children’s explanations of love. Here are a few:

“When my grandmother got arthritis, she couldn’t bend over to paint her toenails anymore, so my grandfather does it for her all the time, even when his hands got arthritis too. That’s love.” – Rebecca – Age 8

“When someone loves you, the way they say your name is different. You know your name is safe in their mouth.” – Billy – Age 4

“Love is what makes you smile when you are tired.” – Terri – Age 4

“Love is what’s in the room with you at Christmas if you stop opening presents and listen.” – Bobby – Age 7

I think of a song I learned in my own childhood:

God is love, I know it well
‘Cause I see His show and tell
The earth below, the sky above
Show me God is love.

Of course, God’s Word (New International Version) tells us in John 3:16 “For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life.” Love is about giving. Giving our time, our talents, our possessions, anything God tells us to give because it’s all His anyway!

1 Corinthians 13 is the “Love Chapter.” You can evaluate others using verses 4-7, but I would like to encourage you to turn those verses on yourself instead. Verse 4: Are you patient and kind? Are you envious, boastful, prideful? Verse 5: Do you dishonor others? Seek to have your needs met before you attempt to meet the needs of others? Are you easily angered? Do you keep a record of wrongs done to you and those you care about? Do you delight in evil, or do you rejoice with the truth? Do you always protect, always trust, always hope, always persevere?

Let’s revisit the song I introduced last month.

Emmanuel, Emmanuel,
His name is called Emmanuel.
God with us, revealed in us,
His name is called Emmanuel.

Think about those lyrics with me. God with us, revealed in us. How will God reveal Himself in you today? Specifically, how will you show love to those who seem to least deserve it?
